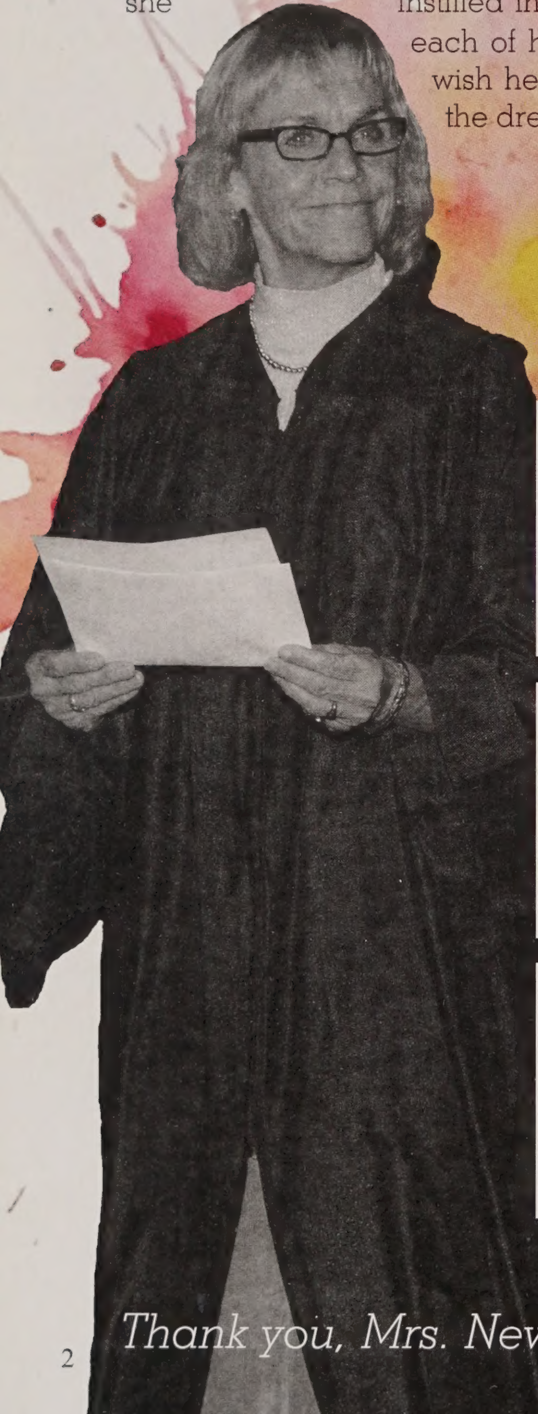
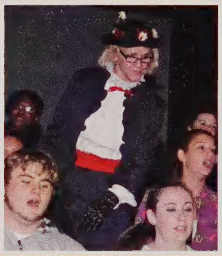
YEARBOOK DEDICATION

Mrs. Rosemary Neville

The class of 2015 would like to dedicate this year's book to our one and only housemaster, Mrs. Rosemary Neville. From day one, Mrs. Neville has set goals and expectations for our class, working as hard as she can to make sure we all fulfill those initial hopes. For thirteen years, she has been hard at work at Waltham High School, acting as housemaster to the multitude of students that have come through these doors. After this year, she will be leaving along with our class, off on her own journey and to her own future. From playing Mary Poppins in senior revue to recently winning the Woman of the Year award at the National Honor Society and Student Council banquet, Mrs. Neville proves that she is always actively involved in our class and has a legacy that will live on. As we all continue on in our lives, whether it be at a job, in school, or the military, we will all take the morals and ethics she instilled in us from the minute we entered this school. She genuinely cares about each of her students, and wants nothing more than to see all of us succeed. We wish her the best in the future and hold her as close to our hearts as she holds the dress code to hers.





Thank you, Mrs. Neville, for your dedication to education and to us.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

Ms. Brenda Feeley

On behalf of the senior class of 2015, thank you for everything big and small, Ms. Feeley. I have never seen anyone bend over backwards for people the way you do. You have been there for us through the good times, the bad times, and the ugly crying faces and we appreciate every second of your time that you have put into us. You give so much more than your job description requires and that selflessness is admired by all, and means so much more to us than you will ever know. I am sure you mean something different to every student in this room based on the different things you have helped them with, and but as a class from us to you. Thank you for being a listener, a mentor and most importantly, a friend. And I would especially like to thank you for you part in making our house office a home.

-Senior Elizabeth Arpino

Mrs. Nancy Quinn

Ms.Quinn is someone that i feel should be recognized. I actually have a nickname for her, and that is Quinderella. i call her this because Cinderella is someone who goes above and beyond to achieve anything that is give to her. She is a woman who has good qualities of kindness, helpfulness, and a huge, caring heart. This is something i feel Ms. Quinn should be recognized for. Thank you for also having an open ear to help and guide me to make the right decisions. I appreciate the helping hand you have given the class of 2015.

It was a memorable season for the Waltham High School varsity football team. With many victories including a fantastic homecoming win, the team had a season that will be remembered for years to come. With the support of the fans and DCL winning cheerleaders, captains Moses Holloway, Terrance Charles, and Joey Caroll led the team to a successful and remarkable year.

"Although we didn't get the outcome we wanted, I enjoyed playing with these guys and learning from our coaches. We are a family!"
-Senior captain Moses Holloway

Field Hockey

When you have a team that works as hard as the Waltham Girl's varsity field hockey team, there is hardly anything you can't accomplish. With the leadership of senior captains Vanessa Hachey, Casey Cannistrano, Shauna Galvin, and Pagie Hovsepian, and dedicated coach Denise Nugent, the team made up for anything they lacked on the scoreboard with their spirit. The girls were always there for each other, supporting their teammates through the ups and the downs of the Fall season. With the help of each and every player, they worked hard to successfully obtain three wins. The seniors hope they left a lasting impression on the underclassmen and believe their spirit and work ethic will motivate them to do well for years to come.

Cross Country

It was a season filled with hard work for the Waltham Cross Country team, but they persevered through any challenge that was thrown at them. Although they didn't win any of their meets, they brought the most team spirit and dedication in the DCL. With captains Lindsay Mogan, Ethan Ashford, and Annie Jean-Baptiste, the team worked with coach Kevin Long to improve on their speed and skills during every practice. From running every day to working in the weight room, the team put their best efforts into becoming the best cross country runners they could be, and even if their records didn't dictate that, their attitudes did. With their desire to become better runners, they gave 100% to their sport.

Tough yet memorable is the phrase that comes to mind when you think of the 2014/2015 Waltham Golf season. Despite an unfavorable record, the team never gave up in their efforts. Under Coach Russell Sorin, they won three of their season matches and kept positive attitudes throughout the year. With senior captain Joey Pescatore, their leadership gave them a great advantage over competing teams. "We were a young team with young talent," said Pescatore, "being the only senior , it was great helping them improve their game so they can succeed throughout their high school career".

The 2015 Waltham Varsity Boy's Basketball team had quite the unforgettable season. Securing enough wins to make it to the tournament, the team worked together like they never had before to cheer each other on and earn one of the top spots in the DCL. Another ground breaking step for the team was winning their 300th game under coach Joe Cacciatore. Led by Cacciatore as well as senior captains Jared Ferrari and Jordan Carter, the players knew they were in good hands. Although tough to say goodbye to their eight seniors this year, the team possesses talent to spare and hope to carry on their legacy for years to come.

" We had a great year. I enjoyed every second of it and I'm going to miss putting on the red and white" -Senior captain Brendan Hopkins

This season was one to remember for Waltham High School's varsity boys hockey team. The entire team worked hard to achieve many wins and was supported not only by their coach, John Maguire, but also many fans. Led by senior captains Shamus Egan and Brendan Hopkins and assistant captain Brandon Hamner, the team was able to make this season a great one.

"This season was one that had many ups and downs. Overall, We played well as a team. We were able to have some big wins and had a big tie against Central Catholic. As the season progressed, we overcame many challenges on and off the ice that allowed us to bond and have a really close group" - Senior captain Shamus Egan

Girls Hockey

It was a great season for Girls hockey this year, and one the girls are sure to remember for years to come. Led by coach Foley, senior captain Ali Longmoore, and junior captain Jennie Cicconi, the team claimed to have had the most fun they had ever had in a season. With the number of players slightly on the lower side, the team often brought up youth players from the middle school, and still played at a high and competitive level. They worked well together and bonded over the course of the season, and their compatibility showed in how they played.

Throughout my whole hockey career, i don't think I've been with a team more close knit than this one. we all clicked on the first day, we got through everything and overcame so much. i wouldn't have wanted to spend this season with any other team. -Senior captain Ali Longmoore

Words from the Coach

The ski team this year was different. We had the opportunity of having a team waiver; Lexington High School joined us this year. We had 21 Lexington boys and girls on the team and only one Waltham student, Katelyn Kiley, so it was an interesting year. In hindsight, it was a fantastic season and the Lexington students were great. We had some top notch skiers; they were all around great kids. They treated our girl like she was one of the family and it was a great experience for all.

The S.A.D.D. club's main activity this year was the mock car crash to raise awareness for drunk driving. Starring Moses Holloway, Katie Maehl, Emily Aubert, Tasha Berit, Matt Poirier, Jen Sexton, and Anthony Smith, the assembly created a fake crash where a student was killed and a family injured as others were taken off for questioning. It ended with a moving lecture from a family that experienced loss first hand, reminding students once and for all that drinking and driving is illegal and never a good idea.

The Learning Zone Child Care Centers

At The Learning Zone, we are guided by our belief that children need a safe and nurturing environment, as well as one that is educational and challenging, to thrive. Our unique curriculum allows children to make individual choices within a structured educational framework, through which they will grow into confident decision-makers.

We value our relationship with parents, and believe that an open, free, and on-going communication is an essential component of an environment that encourages growth in children. The Learning Zone welcomes and encourages parents to become involved in the Administrative, Educational, and Recreational levels of our programming.
